THE [Numb. 839.]

MARYLAND GAZETTE,

Containing the lateſt Advices foreign and domeſtic.

THURSDAY, June 4, 1761.

FROM THE VOTES OF THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.

Mercurii 18 Die Martii, 1761.

Reſolved, Nemine Contradicente,

THAT the Thanks of this Houſe be given to Mr. Speaker, for his conſtant and unwearied Attendance in the Chair, during the Courſe of above Thirty-three Years, in five ſucceſſive Parliaments; for the unſhaken Integrity and ſteady Impartiality of his Conduct there; and for the indefatigable Pains he has, with uncommon Abilities, conſtantly taken to promote the real Intereſt of his King and Country, to maintain the Honour and Dignity of Parliament, and to preſerve inviolable the Rights and Privileges of the Commons of Great-Britain.

Upon which Mr. Speaker ſaid,

I WAS never under ſo great a Difficulty in my Life to know what to ſay in this Place, as I am at preſent.——I can ſtand againſt Misfortunes and Diſtreſſes; I have ſtood againſt Misfortunes and Diſtreſſes, and may do ſo again; but I am not able to ſtand this overflow of Good-will and Honour to me. It overpowers me; and had I all the Strength of Language, I could never expreſs the full Sentiments of my Heart, upon this Occaſion, of Thanks and Gratitude. If I have been happy enough to perform any Services here, that are acceptable to the Houſe, I am ſure I now receive the nobleſt Reward for them; the nobleſt that any Man can receive for any Merit, far ſuperior, in my Eſtimation, to all the other Emoluments of this World. I owe every Thing to this Houſe; I not only owe to this Houſe, that I am in this Place, but that I have had their conſtant Support in it; and to their Good-will and Aſſiſtance, their Tenderneſs and Indulgence towards me in my Errors, it is, that I have been able to perform my Duty here to any Degree of Approbation: Thanks therefore are not ſo much due to me for theſe Services, as to the Houſe itſelf, who made them to be Services in me.

When I began my Duty here, I ſet out with a Reſolution, and Promiſe to the Houſe, to be impartial in every Thing, and to ſhew Reſpect to every Body. The firſt I know I have done, it is the only Merit I can aſſume: If I have failed in the other, it was unwillingly, it was inadvertently; and I aſk their Pardon, moſt ſincerely, to whomſoever it may have happened.—I can truly ſay, the giving Satisfaction to all has been my conſtant Aim, my Study, and my Pride.

And now, Sirs, I am to take my laſt Leave of you. It is, I confeſs, with Regret, becauſe the being within theſe Walls has ever been the chief Pleaſure of my Life: But my advanced Age and Infirmities, and ſome other Reaſons, call for Retirement and Obſcurity. There I ſhall ſpend the Remainder of my Days; and ſhall only have Power to hope and to pray, and my Hopes and Prayers, my daily Prayer, will be for the Continuance of the Conſtitution in general, and that the Freedom, the Dignity, and Authority of this Houſe, may be perpetual.

Reſolved, Nemine Contradicente, That the Thanks of this Houſe be given to Mr. Speaker, for what he has now ſaid to the Houſe, and that the ſame be printed in the Votes of this Day.

Reſolved, Nemine Contradicente, That an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Majeſty, humbly to beſeech his Majeſty, that he will be graciouſly pleaſed to confer ſome ſignal Mark of his Royal Favour upon the Right Hon. Arthur Onſlow, Eſq; Speaker of this Houſe, for his great and eminent Services performed to his Country, for the Space of thirty-three Years and upwards; during which he has, with ſuch diſtinguiſhed Ability and Integrity, preſided in the Chair of this Houſe; and to aſſure his Majeſty, that whatever Expence his Majeſty ſhall think proper to be incurred upon that Account, this Houſe will make good the ſame to his Majeſty.

Jovis, 18 Die Martii, 1761.

Mr. Vice Chamberlain reported to the Houſe, that their Addreſs of Yeſterday had been preſented to his Majeſty: And that his Majeſty was pleaſed to give the following moſt gracious Anſwer:

That his Majeſty has the juſteſt Senſe of the long Services and great Merits of Mr. ONSLOW, preſent Speaker of the Houſe of Commons; and has already taken the ſame into his Conſideration; and that he will do therein what ſhall appear to his Majeſty to be moſt proper, agreeable to the Deſire of his faithful Commons.

By the KING.

A Proclamation for diſſolving this preſent Parliament, and declaring the Calling of another.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS we have thought fit, by and with the Advice of our Privy Council, to diſſolve this preſent Parliament, which now ſtands prorogued to Tueſday the ſeventh Day of April next; we do for that End publiſh this our royal Proclamation; and do hereby diſſolve the ſaid Parliament accordingly. And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgeſſes, and the Commiſſioners for Shires and Burghs of the Houſe of Commons, are diſcharged from their Meeting and Attendance on Tueſday the ſaid ſeventh Day of April next. And we being deſirous and reſolved, as ſoon as may be, to meet our People, and have their Advice in Parliament, do hereby make known to all our loving Subjects our royal Will and Pleaſure to call a new Parliament; and do hereby further declare, That with the Advice of our Privy Council, we have this Day given Orders to our Chancellor of Great-Britain, to iſſue out Writs in due Form, for calling a new Parliament; which Writs are to bear Teſt on Saturday the 21ſt Day of this Inſtant March, and to be returnable on Tueſday the 19th Day of May next.

GIVEN at our Court at St. James's, the 20th Day of March, 1761, in the firſt Year of our Reign.

GOD Save the KING.

LONDON.

March 14. We are informed, that in the eight large Store-ſhips which were ſome Time ago ſent to Quebec, where they are ſafe arrived, there were, among other Articles, 7000 Barrels of Gunpowder, 75 Pieces of Cannon, and Cloathing for 12 Regiments; from which there is little Reaſon to doubt, but the Intention of the Government is to keep Poſſeſſion of thoſe valuable Acquiſitions in America, which have coſt the Nation ſo much Blood and Treaſure to acquire.

The King of Pruſſia has aſſigned a large Sum of Money to purchaſe Bread for the Poor of Berlin.

Whiteball, March 14. The King has been pleaſed to conſtitute Lord Anſon, to be Vice Admiral of Great Britain.

St. James's, March 17. The King having this Day thought fit to diſſolve the Privy Council, and at the ſame Time, to appoint a new one, conſiſting of the ſame Members with the former Council, together with Anthony Earl of Shafteſbury, all the Lords and others preſent were thereupon ſworn of his Majeſty's moſt Honourable Privy-Council, and took their Places at the Board accordingly.

His Majeſty was then pleaſed to declare the Right Hon. John Earl Granville, Lord Preſident of his Majeſty's moſt Honourable Privy Council.

March 19. It is ſaid the Earl of Holderneſſe will have a Penſion of 2000l. per Annum ſettled upon him, and the Reverſion of Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, for himſelf, his Son, and Grandſon.

Portſmouth, March 10. This Day about Noon, arrived at Spithead, Sir Edward Hawke, in his Majeſty's Ship the Royal George, and Sir Charles Hardy, in the Union, from Quiberon, with two French Frigates of 14 Guns each, a Veſſel from Martinico, and two or three ſmaller Prizes, taken by different Ships of the Quiberon Squadron.

March 21. There was the greateſt Number of Ladies of Quality and Perſons of Diſtinction at the Houſe of Peers Yeſterday, ever kpown on any Occaſion.

It is ſaid that Triennial Parliaments will ſoon be revived.

Laſt Night great Rejoicings and Illuminations were made at all the Goals of this City, on Account of his Majeſty's ſigning the Inſolvent Act.

The Supplies granted for the preſent Year amount to 18,816,119 l. 19 s. 9 d. three Farthings.

Extract of a Letter from Portſmouth, March 22.

"Saturday Afternoon the Hon. Commodore Keppel arrived here from London.

"Sunday Morning Morgan's Light Infantry, and Ruſane's Regiment, marched from Hilſey Barracks to the South Sea Beach, from whence they embarked with the greateſt Chearfulneſs. The flat-bottomed Boats took them off the Beach, and put them on board Cutters, which lay a little way off. The Cutters took them to Spithead, and put them on board the Tranſports.

"To-morrow we expect the two Regiments that are in Hilſey Barracks, to embark in the ſame Manner as the above.

"The ſame Morning ſailed into the Harbour directly from Sea the two miſſing Tranſports, with two Companies of Ruſane's Men on board.

"Our Expedition is in Reality taking Place. It will be a grand Armament. Such Emulation and Unanimity have hardly ever been known between our Sea and Land Forces as at preſent."

A Gentleman at the Court End of the Town has laid a Wager of 1000 Guineas that he will produce 29 Horſes that ſhall run 2900 Miles in 29 Days ſucceſſively; that each Horſe ſhall run 100 Miles a Day, and the Whole to be rode by one Man.

Charles Trelawney, Eſq; Aſſay Maſter, of the Tin in Cornwall and Devon.

Sir Charles Cottrell Dormer, Knt. Maſter of the Ceremonies, and Stephen Cottrell, Eſq; Aſſiſtant Maſter and Marſhal of the Ceremonies.

March 24. On Saturday Evening, about 10 o'Clock, a Party of Horſe Guards went for Portſmouth, with 150,000 l. moſtly in Foreign Silver, for the Uſe of the Forces going on the intended Expedition; and Yeſterday Morning Charles Bambridge, Eſq; the Deputy Paymaſter, ſet off for the ſame Place.

March 26. General Hodgſon ſet out Yeſterday for Portſmouth, to take on him the Command of the Forces going on the Expedition.

Orders have been iſſued for expediting the Embarkation of the Troops going for Germany; in Conſequence, it is ſaid, of a late Expreſs from Prince Ferdinand and the Marquis of Granby.

And the Tranſports are ſailed down the River to Graveſend, in order to receive them on board.

The Comete Frigate, of 3 Guns (who took the Marquis of Granby, Scott, from Briſtol for Liſbon) was cruizing at or near the Mouth of Briſtol Channel, in Company with two French Men of War, one of 74, and another of 64 Guns, who had taken five Prizes, and the 74 Gun Ship was gone with them for France.

Private Letters by the laſt Mail ſay, that a few Days ago ſailed from Breſt two of the King's Frigates, which are lent to the Merchants, and by them fitted out; one of them mounts 32 Guns, the other 22; they were ſoon after they ſailed joined by another of 16 Guns from St. Maloes, and are to cruize in Conſort, in order to intercept ſome of our outward bound Ships.

By a Letter from Rotterdam we are informed, that there were ſeveral French Priſoners on board the Eaſt-India Ship the Ajax, taken by the Prothee, a French Man of War of 64 Guns, and carried into Breſt, among whom was the famous Monſieur de Buſſy, accounted the richeſt Subject of his Moſt Chriſtian Majeſty, and the Colonel of Lally's Regiment.

'Tis ſtrongly reported that the Prothee French Ship of War, which took the Ajax Indiaman, has alſo taken an Advice-boat, which was diſpatched with an Account of the Surrender of Pondicherry; and that Monſ. d'Apche, with ſix Ships of War, was returned from the Iſle of Bourbon to France.

March 28. It was reported at St. James's Yeſterday, that the King of Sardinia had declared War againſt the Queen of Hungary.

Private Letters by the Flanders Mail ſay, that Marſhal Duke de Broglio had received an Expreſs from the King his Maſter, to give Prince Ferdinand Battle at all Events. Theſe Letters further ſay, they hourly expected to hear of a general Action.

The King of Pruſſia has augmented his Army with 50,000 new Recruits.

It is ſaid, that the Box of Diamonds on board the Ajax Indiaman, was the Property of Monſ. Buſſy, who propoſed to ſettle in England, the French Conſtitution not agreeing with his Circumſtances, as ſome Complaints were preferred againſt him long ſince; theſe, if at firſt ſmall, will, no doubt, be heightened now againſt him, eſpecially when we conſider the immenſe Riches M. de Buſſy is ſaid to be poſſeſſed of, and the preſent low State of the Finances of France.

Admiralty-Office, March 26. His Majeſty's Ships the Magnanime, Chicheſter, and Niger, being on a Cruize, at the Mouth of the Channel, gave Chace to a ſmall French Privateer Snow, which they ſaw in the Morning of the 10th Inſtant, and in the Evening the Niger took her. She is called the Marquis de la Chartres, of St. Maloes, of 6 Guns, and 76 Men; had been out but two Days, and had not taken any Thing.

March 27. His Majeſty's Ship the Vengeance, of 28 Guns (Nine and Four Pounders) and 200 Men, commanded by Captain Nightingale, is arrived at Plymouth with two Prizes; one named the Entreprenant, pierced for 44, but now carrying only 26 Guns (Twelve and Six pounders) 203 Men, being equipped for War and Merchandize, and loaded with various Kinds of Goods for St. Domingo, with which ſhe ſailed from Bourdeaux on the 8th Inſtant: The other a ſmall Privateer of St. Maloes, carrying four Carriage and four Swivel Guns, with 45 Men, commanded by Joſeph Merven, which the Vengeance fell in with off the Lizard on the 23d Inſtant: She came from Abbrevrak the 21ſt, and had not taken any Thing. Captain Nightingale gives the following Relation of his Engagement with the Entreprenant; that he got up cloſe along ſide of her at Five o'Clock in the Afternoon of the 13th, when the Action immediately began, and continued for three Quarters of an Hour, in which Time the Vengeance was five Times on Fire (twice, as was imagined, from the Enemy's Wads ſetting Fire to the main Rigging;) That the Vengeance's Rigging and Sails being then ſo much ſhattered, that the Ship was not under Command, the Enemy ran his Boltſprit under her Taffarel for boarding: That he was therein prevented, and the Vengeance ſh[illegible] repair her Rigging and Sails. As ſoo[illegible] Ship was in Condition, Captain Nightin[illegible] up again cloſe to the Enemy, whe[illegible]gement was renewed for an Hour, [illegible] the Entreprenant ſheered off, and bore away. That the Vengeance being a ſecond Time diſabled in her Maſts and Rigging, was ſome Time in wearing: That at length ſhe wore, and Captain Nightingale got again within Piſtol Shot of the Enemy, and renewed the Engagement, which continued for an Hour and an Half, when the Enemy called for Quarter. The Entreprenant had 15 Men killed, and 24 wounded. The Vengeance had 6 killed and 27 wounded, moſt of them dangerouſly; and two of them are ſince dead.

His Majeſty's Ship the Bedford, of 64 Guns, commanded by Captain Deane, has taken and ſent into Plymouth the Comete French Frigate of War, of 32 Guns, and 250 Men, which the Bedford fell in with on the 16th Inſtant, 30 Leagues S. W. from Uſhant, and after a Chace of nine Hours took her. She ſailed from Breſt on the 9th Inſtant.

B O S T O N, May 18.

Laſt Thurſday a Veſſel arrived at Marblehead in a ſhort Paſſage from Liſbon, by whom we have Advice, that on the 31ſt of March, at 10 o'Clock in the Morning, they had there a terrible Shock of an Earthquake, ſaid to be little inferior to that which happened in November 1755. It ſhook down the Priſon, and many other Buildings, by which the Priſoners got at Liberty, and made off; among whom were many Jeſuits, who were confined on Account of the late Conſpiracy, ſome of which had been again taken and ſecured; and it was thought an Embargo would be laid on the Shipping, in order to prevent others from eſcaping: At St. Ubes (a flouriſhing Town, 21 Miles South of Liſbon) the Earthquake was more ſevere than any ever known there, by which the Town was nearly deſtroyed, and many Lives loſt, both there and at Liſbon, but as yet we have no Particulars, though a more circumſtantial Account is hourly expected.

We learn from Portſmouth, that laſt Week arrived there Captain Coodmin in the Brig Deborah from Saltertuda, who informs, that on his Paſſage from that Place, he was taken by a French Frigate, in Company with the Captains Hooker and Guppy, both of Piſcataqua, the Day after they parted with the Man of War who was their Convoy; the whole Fleet was in Sight when they were taken, but by Cover of the Night they got clear. It coſt 1300 l. Sterling to ranſom theſe three Veſſels.

On the 9th Inſtant the Province Sloop Maſſachuſetts, ſail'd from hence with a fair Wind for Cape Bona-Viſta, on the North Eaſt Part of Newfoundland, having on board JOHN WINTHROP, Eſq; Holeſian Profeſſor of Mathematicks and Natural Philoſophy at the College in Cambridge, with the College Apparatus and other Neceſſaries, in order to obſerve the Tranſit of Venus over the Sun's Diſk, on the 6th of June next. The Sloop was fitted out by the Order and at the Expence of the Government.

N E W - P O R T, May 19.

In Lat. 32, to the Weſtward of Bermuda, the Beginning of this Month, George Hopkins, in a Brig from Barbados to Providence, was taken and ranſomed by a French Privateer Brig of Force, well manned. She had before taken a Ship from Philadelphia, a Sloop bound to this Port, and ſeveral other Veſſels. Theſe are all the Particulars we could learn.

N E W - Y O R K, May 25.

On Monday laſt arrived here the Sloop Dolphin, Capt. James Hoyt, in 15 Days from New-Providence, by whom we hear, that about the 20th of April Captain Palmer, in a Privateer Schooner of 10 Guns, belonging to that Place, had brought in there a Letter of Marque French Brig, which he had taken coming from the Cape, bound to Bourdeaux; her Loading conſiſted of 22,000 lb. of Indigo, and Sugars: That on Sunday the 3d Inſtant, a Privateer Ship of 22 Guns, belonging to Philadelphia, Captain M'Pherſon Commander, arrived at Salt Key (about two Leagues to Windward of Providence) with five French and Dutch Sloops, Prizes from Cape-François: That ſeveral Veſſels had lately been condemned at Providence, viz. the Brig Catherine, Captain Henſhaw, taken by Captain Koffler; a Sloop, Captain Wilſon, and a ſmall Sloop, Captain Caldwell; which laſt, after Condemnation, was given to the Captain, and ſailed for New-York two Days before Captain Hoyt. The Weather on this Coaſt had been for ſome Time remarkably thick and hazy, and on Monday, off Cape-May, in about 12 Fathom Water, Captain Hoyt ſaw a Top-maſt with ſome Rigging on it, and ſundry broken Pieces of Trunks, &c. and he took up a Caſk of Currans, which had not been long in the Water, being not much damaged, mark'd S. G. on the Head; he ſaw no Veſſels on the Coaſt.

Laſt Wedneſday Night was ſent in a Prize Tartan, from the Granades to Old France, with Coffee, Sugar, &c. taken by the Privateer Brig Mars, belonging to Antigua, Captain Anſon, who was left in Chace of another large Veſſel.

PHILADELPHIA, May 28.

From the Antigua Papers by Captain Porter we have the following Advices, viz. That a new Lumber loaded Ship, from Piſcataqua, was run aſhore at Barbuda, having been firſt taken by the French, who got aſhore, but the Veſſel, and the greateſt Part of her Cargo, was intirely loſt: That Captain Middleton, of his Majeſty's Ship Emerald, had taken a French Privateer Brig of ten Guns; That Captain Taylor, in the Griffin Man of War, had ſent two French Privateers to Guadaloupe, of 8 and 10 Guns: That two French Privateer Schooners, taken by the Antigua, ran foul of each other, and were both loſt: That two Piſcataqua Ships had been taken, but retaken by the Echo and Bienfaiſant Men of War: And that Captain Barton, of the Ship Chriſtian, from Briſtol, fell in with 7 Privateers to Windward of Antigua, but that none of them made a cloſe Attack but one, which he ſoon obliged to ſheer off, in the beſt Manner ſhe could.

Captain Porter informs us, that the Captains Irwin and Todd, from Maryland to Antigua, were both taken; but that the firſt was retaken, and ſent to Guadaloupe; the latter ranſomed for 1000 Dollars. He further adviſes, that the Captains Cooper and Hatton, both from Virginia to Antigua, were taken by a deep loaded French Frigate, homeward bound, and ranſomed; the firſt for 260, the laſt for 450 Pounds Sterling: And that the ſame Frigate had alſo taken two Boſton Men, and a Schooner belonging here; their Names not known.
